This recognition highlights InnovAge's commitment to creating a culture where employees feel supported, valued, and inspired to deliver high-quality, compassionate care to older adults. InnovAge employs more than 2,400 team members across multiple states. Because of its dedicated team, through PACE, InnovAge is able to offer participants 24/7 personalized, wraparound medical and social support that is helping thousands of seniors stay in their homes where they can age safely and independently.

"Being recognized as one of the top workplaces in the country within the aging services industry is an extraordinary honor," said Patrick Blair, InnovAge CEO. "Our employees are the heart of InnovAge. Their dedication to caring for seniors with dignity and respect, while also supporting one another, is what makes this recognition possible. We are proud to celebrate our team and the culture they've built together."

"Our team members don't just have jobs—they have a mission," added Blair. "We are proud to be recognized as one of the best places to work in aging services, and even prouder of the extraordinary people who made this possible."
